

Access n°1

Access n°2 (if Brabant blocked)

METRO MAP

PLACES OF INTEREST AND SOME ATTRACTIONS IN BRUSSELS

Brussels, the capital city of Belgium and the political and administrative capital of Europe, is a city of surprising richness and diversity. With a wealth of architectural styles, Brussels is the cradle of art deco with houses by the famed Victor Horta, together with a wealth of Gothic churches, Flemish Renaissance architecture and charming classical buildings such as the Palais des Nations and the Palais Royal.

- A many-faceted and cosmopolitan city, Brussels attracts a great number of visitors due to its diversity of attractions. From fascinating museums and antique markets to an impressive selection of restaurants and bars, numerous shopping experiences and a frenetic nightlife, Brussels offers something for everyone.
- Grand-Place
Grand-Place / Grote Markt is Brussels' beautiful central square and the focal point of the Brussels social life; an ideal spot to people-watch. Lined with ornate guild houses and museums, it's the centre for Brussels' most important ceremonies and festivals, not to mention the traditional bird market that is held here every Sunday morning.
Distance: Approximately 15 minutes walk from the Place Rogier.
- Palais Royal
Brussels' "Royal Palace" is on the "Place des Palais" facing the "Palais de la Nation", home of the Belgian parliament, across the Park of Brussels. Each year, during summer months only, the Royal Palace in Brussels opens its doors to the public.
Distance: Approximately 20 minutes walk from the Place Rogier
- Grand Sablon
An agenda item that is not to be missed when in Brussels is a visit to the Grand Sablon. This is the eclectic centre of exquisite antique galleries and dynamic, sumptuous restaurants.
Distance: Approximately 1.6 km from the Place Rogier".

- Musée d'Art Moderne
Brussels outstanding and contemporary museum, the museum acts as a showcase for Belgian modern art, as well as welcoming international artists.
Distance: Approximately 0.8 km from the Place Rogier.
- Musée Horta
A must-see attraction for the culture-seeking visitor to Brussels, the Musée Horta is the spectacular former residence and workshops of the leading art nouveau architect Victor Horta.
Distance: Approximately 4.8 km from the Place Rogier.
- Centre Belge de la Bande Dessinée (Belgium Comic Strip Museum)
This fascinating museum should not be missed on any visit to Brussels. Tour through the country's rich and vibrant comic-strip culture, from its earliest beginnings to its contemporary favourites.
Distance: Approximately 1.6 km from the Place Rogier.
- Manneken Pis
An unusual attraction in any city, this statue of a little boy in a somewhat compromising position has become a major part of the Brussels' sightseeing experience.
Distance: Approximately 1.6 km from the Place Rogier.
- Autoworld
Autoworld is a major Brussels attraction, with the largest collection of old and new cars in the world.
Distance: Approximately 3.2 km from the Place Rogier .
- Galerie St-Hubert
An impressive, covered shopping gallery that dates back to 1847. Aside from the shops and stores, the Brussels visitor will marvel at the sublime architecture.
Distance: Approximately 1.6 km from the Place Rogier .